1. For the veil of the Most High is lifted and invitation comes forth to dine and participate and partake of Me and who I am. I am is Joy and Joy says come forth; be not afraid of Me, to come to Me as you are, as you are, and come and receive Me and My joy, My joy, My joy.

2. Receive Me for My veil is lifted. There is nothing prohibiting you from coming to Me and kissing Me and letting Me kiss you. Receive Me and let Me touch and heal your emotions and the places in your heart, your spirit, your soul, that hurt. From right thinking, or wrong, from mistakes or errors, in your judgment or theirs, there is healing in Me. There is healing for you. There is healing for others in Me and there is healing for others through you.

3. Receive Me and receive My healing and receive what I am doing now for My body, inviting all to My table and to know Me, with no veil between us. Nothing between us which hinders us from knowing each other like never before in history, never before in history, that's correct, accurate.

4. I am coming and receiving those who come to Me like never before, like never before, in such love, such tenderness and kindness, so forgiving, outstretched are My arms to you and happy, joyful, joyous to receive you, looking at Me, touching Me, sharing yourself with Me, with no veil on either of us. Shielded not from each other in any way, by any person, by any thinking of the past—religion or doctrine.

5. I am Me and I am clearly in your view as being here and inviting you into My arms, to My table, to My kingdom of righteousness, peace and love, in dimensions others only dreamed about.

6. The veil which hinders is no more. I am. I am. You are. You are Mine—all who receive My word, My announcement, the proclamation of My appearing to you and all who will—with no veil, no pretense, no power to stop us from knowing each other like never before. Then walking in power, empowered, sure of oneself, sure of My power and My Spirit and truth operating in you in wisdom, knowledge, and understanding in manners, ways and means, that transcends all logic and traditions of man.

7. My ways are higher than your ways. You want money. I want people. You want money. I want people. I work through people, not money. I work through the righteous. I empower the righteous and I nurture the righteous. I will nurture the righteous more and more -- knowing Me in power will empower them to do exploits not seen before in this realm.

8. Oh Ted, My heart is grieved for what I am offering when so many are so perplexed and confused they cannot see and hear Me and the clarion call that you are trumpeting forth. So many are so weighted down with such burdens, and hurt, and physical ailments which keep them focused on themselves.

9. I am coming and I come without any veil. I come in chariots of fire and power upon My stallions and in My stallions and in My armies of dedicated, consecrated men and women, boys and girls, of all races and every nation. I come and I come now and I come stronger and I call, I call to all to come to Me now and withhold nothing, protecting themselves not but fully allowing Me to walk with them and talk with them and nurture them and mature them for the coming days.

10. The nimble heart must become more nimble. The knowledgeable heart must become more knowledgeable. The heart of intimacy must come into all who know Me and come to Me for I come with no veil. I come. I come. I come. I come and I so desire all to come to Me.

11. Tell them I love them and appreciate every single thing they have ever done for Me—every single act for another person done unselfishly, every single kind word and smile given to another. Tell them My kingdom operates in kindness and honor and I appreciate every time they honor others and walk in kindness. Tell them I love them and to let kindness increase, let kindness increase, let kindness increase in My body.

12. The church. The church. Oh Ted, the church, you ask and inquire and want to know the details and workings of how I will work through the church and My body as time is short and I come so much more to all, come in power, unveiled and clearly seen before men for who I am and what I'm doing. Ted, I will use My church and I will strengthen My leaders and all people to the extent they let Me.

13. I will take them with Me only to the extent they let Me, they seek Me, they allow Me to. If they won't stop I won't stop. If they will but hear My voice in humility and share My voice and the things I give them for their constituencies, I will share greatly. They must not be ashamed of Me though Ted. If they are ashamed of proclaiming My words to them as My words, why would I want to give them more and more and elevate them into new realms of unveiled power and intimacy? Why would I? I won't. I will deal with the strong—those who have made up their minds they will share Me and My words and My life, My blood, My cup, unreservedly, and scoff not at those who scoff them. My rules Ted. My kingdom. My way. My tenderness and intimacy. Ted, My messages, My words, My power, My influence, My Spirit from Me to My people and to My leaders that will let all the gifts flow in freedom in My people—nurturing them only to get their hands in My hand.

14. Oh what joy that will be when many, multitudes, grasp what I am saying to you. To Me, to Me, to Me, they are Mine, they are Mine and I want them to come to Me in times and ways never dreamed of. I will move and not disappoint. I will lead and guide for they will then know My voice and heart like never before.

15. More Ted, go and grow and grow all those around you. Think it not strange the battles you are in or that you face in the future—I provide, I protect, I give grace and power and I am with you in them—I shield you from some, unknown. I shield you from some, known, and I walk through some with you.

16. You must know Me and rely on Me constantly. You must remain humble and hearing, hearing, hearing, starving for My voice, not literally, but spiritually, coming to Me constantly for that which you yield to Me in trust to provide.

17. I come in power, I come in intimacy and I come in intimacy before I come in power, to all who let Me. I'm coming and I'm coming not, not in decades to come, not in years to come, I come now and I prepare My bride, My people, My chosen people, to know Me in intimacy, so that they will know Me in the power that is coming and is come and is waiting for them.

18. Oh the power, splendor, majesty, Ted. Greatness beyond your English alphabet to describe.

19. Models of power will be models of freedom.
Models of power are models of freedom.
Freedom yields power based on intimacy and maturity, intimacy and maturity.

20. Answer them Ted. Answer the questions that come about intimacy and giving of yourself to Me and giving of Myself to you and how we touch and share and exchange hearts and you let Me touch your emotions and bring you healing and life and wounds heal and wisdom comes and life abundant comes, even in your trials and your comfort and your details of life.

21. Tell them how I connect you and describe these times to help open doors of thinking that will permit Me to come into them unveiled and be who I want to be to them and in them, with healing and power and grace and glory and empowering them to be My design, who I designed them to be in power and glory and honor and freedom—freeing all those around them in power and authority—not timidity and shy, inhibited, politically correct behavior and social mores of this day.

22. I come and I come in power and I am coming to My people and people are more important than the programs My people try to reach My people with. They are using their ways and minds to do things I want done My way and My ways are better and more effective and efficient and operate on principles in realms transcendent of man.

23. I have order and systems but My order is not man's order. I have My order and My ways to rearrange and share what I'm doing with the stodgy. I have My Spirit who is power and glory and majesty and sovereign over tradition and man's ways of littleness. Newness, newness, nimbleness, agile of spirit, open to Me and My power.

24. Those who will gather and pray in My name and share with Me and each other will learn and come forth and mature in hearing My voice, if they let Me, if they do it in true sincerity, withholding nothing.

25. My house must be a house of prayer, where people come to get to know Me rather than a place of programs to keep them busy, entertained, occupied.

26. First and foremost they must know Me and My voice and have their gifts freed and opened to My Spirit and My power and the new things I am doing. They must Ted. They must open to Me and seek Me and free their people who are not theirs, they're Mine. And I will open the windows of heaven to those who will free the hearts, minds, and values of My stallions, to mature in newness and nimbleness of heart and skill and power and wisdom.

27. I will come where I am wanted and rearrange the organization charts of those organizations who want Me to come and rearrange them. I will come and I will speak and I will come in tenderness and power and I will share My heart and how to structure and restructure and build and design the format and foundations of that which is new and not old. I will come into the board meetings and parlors and the prayer closets of those who will come to Me.

28. I will come and I will share and I will give you much and I will give them much, and then will come forth the new networks of the new networks of the new things I am doing to share Me with Mine—to share My voice with the seeking heart who is nimble enough to receive and regard in obedience and assimilate My body into their thinking and their habits and their designs and structures to facilitate the family, the family, the family, with power and effectiveness.

29. I come and I speak and I remain silent no more in the houses that want Me. I speak through My people in the gifts I have given them and I call to them. I call them to maturity and to move out in Me and not be fearful of mistakes—that which paralyses and prevents growth and maturity. Some will err small and some will err big but My family, My body, must come forth. I have provided discernment and order and references to how maturity must come forth and creativity and maturity in gifts not be squelched or forfeited.

30. I come and I come now and I come in power and I speak and I nurture and I mature and I will be silent no more. Time is short. I come unveiled to all who want me regardless of their past, regardless of their label and regardless of their anticipation and preconceptions of how I will come. I come and I come in power and tenderness and I reveal Myself unveiled this day to all who come to Me, to My table, to My power and allow Me to make Myself known in intimacy and rearrange the lives and structures and futures of them so I can give them what I have for them—fulfillment, deep fulfillment and joy and laughter and friendships in networks of newness and power and creativity, exploring depths of Me that few have gone to. But Ted, today is now, the day is today, today, today. All provision is made, now provided, go, shrink not back.

31. Boldly proclaim My words to you and to My body and to all who will listen and tell them to receive Me with no veil over them for I have no veil over Me. I am here. I am thine. They are Mine. We are one—who choose to be one.

32. Be one with Me more Ted, and bring more to Me to enjoy oneness in Me—My laughter, healing, healing, healing, oh Ted, healing My body, healing their communications and ability to work with each other in love and not competitiveness. Me, openness, transparency, Ted, thank you.

33. Now go and grow and bless your son for I love him so. He is so special to Me. Enjoy lunch and tell him I have spoken to him. I have spoken to Marci and I will use them for Me and for healing in My body beyond the realm of their capacity to register this day. But they will. They will be one and they will always be one. Ted, they represent part of what I am doing that's new and they will speak My voice and My words and bring healing and deliverance to Me in unveiled formats of love and power in tenderness of tenderness. Tell them and be not afraid to prophesy over them My words to you, for these and the words I continue to give you for them as they mature in Me, choosing Me every day over logic and tradition and things of the past. I come to them. I come to them mightily and My hand will lift them and bless them and elevate them for their hearts pant after Me, and nimbleness and agility and all that I am doing that's new in this dispensation, this day, this day, Ted. Tell them to be Me as they are one in Me and they will soon enjoy a oneness that exceeds any oneness they can imagine. Their marriage is of Me and their future is of Me and their timing is of Me and I will raise them up for they are of Me and seek Me in oneness of heart. I bless them Ted, and you have My word that dear, dear they are to Me. Dear, special, for Ted, they are yours and part of what you have prayed for so long and sought and pled with me for. I will do what I have told you and I will be pleased and you will be pleased. Worry not about the details that concern you, concern your family, for I am God. There is no other. I am Me and you have been you before Me and withheld nothing and I like telling you and putting in print for others to see and read My blessing on you and your seed for coming to Me like you have. I love you Ted. Tell them I love them. Tell them I care.
Tell them I want to heal their hurts and wounds.
Tell all these words and convey My tenderness and kindness and how I want to touch not only them but their seed and generations through them. Tell them I come in power, with no veil, with no pretense, in not even a parable.
I come in plain view to them and to all who seek Me.

34. Seek Me more and more often and get these out daily as you have and more and more and more will come to you. People Ted, money, provision are all at your hand, your threshold, to hold you up, to hold up your arms, to do and say and be what I have told you you are, and you are to say, and you will become.

35. Thank you. Thank your friends for being your friends and bless all in your path for now and forevermore.

36. Tell Keely [Brunel] I love her and she is kind. I have heard her plea and I will grant her requests. Now tell her and bless her and let her know how much I appreciate her acceptance of authority and now I honor her and I will honor her more. You will see. Tell her. Tell her and be not hesitant for I will instruct you to tell many things to many people in My kingdom and deliver messages of deliverance and encouragement and exhortation to many in many venues and you will be glad.

37. I love you and bless you and bless all who receive My words through My prophets—both young and old, new and not new, past and present.

Thank you.
